

Continuous Practicum (Distant program) Requirements. (Codes in STAG 7715)

Course description:

Teachers' interaction with learners in Modern language classroom is considered an important constituent of teachers' competence. This Practicum is aimed at deepening knowledge of classroom interaction and enhancing skills of classroom management. These may include encouraging learner participation, managing classroom event, incorporating into a lesson various patterns of interaction in class, selecting and using resources appropriately, etc.

Requirements: you are required

- to observe classes of your colleagues with the focus on classroom management (see the observation form)
- to invite a colleague to observe your class with further discussion of the class
- to submit 2 consecutive lessons conducted in one class (see the plan template and the main planning elements)

While visited by a colleague, learn his/her feedback, and reflect on it. You may be interested in learning the following from your colleague:

- if all pupils were equally involved
- if your instructions in English were clear
- if the pace of work was appropriate for your learners
- which activities your colleague found useful and engaging
- what suggestions for improvement of your teaching your colleague can give you
- please, add questions of your own

Take notes of the colleagues feedback, write your reflection on the feedback provided by your colleague

By the end of the first week in January submit:

- 2 observation forms (the classes you observed)
- 2 lesson plans you taught
- Your reflection on the colleague's feedback on the class you taught
